Ink and Ice is a unique winter experience that combines art, cocktails, and adrenaline-pumping ice slides into a single unforgettable adventure. Nestled in the heart of downtown Minneapolis, this icy playground is a must-visit destination for locals and tourists alike.

Frozen Masterpieces: The Ice Sculptures

Step inside Ink and Ice and be greeted by a breathtaking display of ice sculptures. Masterfully crafted by local artists, these frozen works of art range from whimsical animal figures to intricate architectural designs. The sculptures are illuminated by colorful LED lights, casting an ethereal glow upon the frosty surroundings.

Chilling Cocktails: The Ice Bar

After admiring the ice sculptures, make your way to the Ice Bar, where you can sip on frosty cocktails and mocktails in a setting that's literally chilling. The bar is constructed entirely of ice, from the walls to the tables and even the glasses. As you enjoy your drink, marvel at the ice chandeliers and frozen artwork that adorn the space.

Thrilling Ice Slides: The Slippery Slopes

For those seeking an adrenaline rush, Ink and Ice offers a series of icy slides that are sure to get your heart pounding. The slides vary in height and steepness, providing options for thrill-seekers of all ages. As you slide down, the city skyline whizzes past, creating a breathtaking backdrop to your icy adventure.

A Winter Wonderland for All

Ink and Ice is more than just an icy playground; it's a social hub where friends, families, and couples can come together to create unforgettable memories. The atmosphere is lively and welcoming, with music pumping through the air and laughter echoing through the frosty corridors.

Whether you're looking for a romantic date night, a fun family outing, or a unique winter adventure, Ink and Ice has something for everyone. So bundle up, grab your mittens, and head to the Twin Cities for an experience that will leave you chilled to the bone and filled with joy.
