The Adornment of the Spiritual Marriage is a mystical work written by Johannes Tauler (1300–1361), a German Dominican friar and theologian. The work is a profound and poetic exploration of the union between the human soul and God. It is considered one of the most important works of Christian mysticism.

The Structure of the Work

The Adornment of the Spiritual Marriage is divided into three parts. The first part describes the journey of the soul to God. The second part describes the union of the soul with God. The third part describes the life of the soul in union with God.

The Journey of the Soul to God

The journey of the soul to God is a difficult one. The soul must first renounce the world and its desires. It must then undergo a period of purification. This purification involves the soul being stripped of its impurities and imperfections. Once the soul has been purified, it is ready to receive the grace of God.

The Union of the Soul with God

The union of the soul with God is a mystical experience. It is a moment of complete and perfect love. The soul is filled with the presence of God and is transformed by it. The soul becomes a participant in the divine nature.

The Life of the Soul in Union with God

The life of the soul in union with God is a life of peace and joy. The soul is no longer bound by the limitations of the world. It is free to love God and to serve others. The soul is a source of blessing to all who come into contact with it.

The Influence of the Adornment of the Spiritual Marriage

The Adornment of the Spiritual Marriage has had a profound influence on Christian mysticism. It has been translated into many languages and has been read by countless people. The work has inspired many other works of Christian mysticism, including The Cloud of Unknowing and The Imitation of Christ.

The Adornment of the Spiritual Marriage is a masterpiece of Christian mysticism. It is a work that can lead the soul to a deeper understanding of God and to a closer union with Him.
